Tanners Gather For Family Reunion

By plane, bus and train they arrived in Torrance to attend a family reunion. They were the Tanners, originally from Rolston Okla. The strong family tie brought together the twelve brothers and sisters and their children, totaling 66 in all. California headquarters was the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Sanders, 1629 Acacia Ave., Torrance. Mrs. Sanders is the former Eleanor Tanner.

The biggest reunion was held on Sunday at the Felicita Park in San Diego for both the Tanner and the Johnston families. The reunion was a dream come true for 69-year-old Omar Johnston, who has been working for more than a year to get the clan together. At Sunday's party 40 families were represented by 200 persons.

Johnston along with his sister, Mrs. Lottie Smith of Blackwell, Okla. are the only remaining members of the original Johnstons. Mrs. Smith, 82 years old, arrived by plane for the festivities.

The morning's program was devoted to introductions, many relatives meeting for the first time. In the afternoon, a boat was chartered for an ocean ride, dancing was staged and there was a program of family talent.

On Friday all of the Tanners were here in Torrance for the first time together since 1947. A mammoth barbecue was served. The 12 Tanners are the sons and daughters of the late Fred and Rosa

Hostess at Summer Party

Miniature bouquets of garden flowers centered the individual tables last Friday afternoon when Mrs. Parke Montague entertained her bridge club and several guests at her home, 1328 Beech Ave.

After the luncheon, an afternoon of bridge was enjoyed with first prize going to Mrs. Cam Blakeley, second to Mrs. Burton Easley, and third to Mrs. Walter Levy.

Club members present were Mrs. Robert Triplitt, William Grubbs, Philip Halloran, Gerald Eastham, Easley, Blakeley, and Levy.

Special guests were Mrs. F. P. Moley, Mrs. Phyllis Klink, and Mrs. Montague's mother, Mrs. George Bell, of Houston, Texas.

Since last Sunday, there has been much activity with the remaining visitors, attending the TV shows in Hollywood, making hurried jaunts to all of Southern California's interesting spots and seeing relatives off at various hours of the day and night returning to their homes in all parts of the nation. It was a wonderful get-together with priceless reminiscing and up-to-date accounts of the doings in the lives of the members of its second and third generations with good luck wishes of all in this American pioneer family.

SEE DRIVING FILM

'Italy Fiesta' Is Theme for Fiestadores Summer Party

Signed "Giuseppe," alias the Los Fiestadores board, clever invitations were in the mail this week to the dance club's gala mid-summer party scheduled for Saturday evening, Aug. 10, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Philip Halloran, 1640 Beech Ave. "A Fiesta in Italy" is the theme of the affair and attached to each invitation were red and white finger strings for members to wear to remind them of the only Los Fiestadores social event of the vacation season.

The romance of Italy will permeate the gardens and patio and "Lasagne" with all Italian delicacies will be served at 8 p.m. A combo orchestra will furnish the music for dancing "under the stars."

Plans for the party were made at a board meeting held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Barrington, 2368 Torrance Blvd. Others attending were Dr. and Mrs. Allen Pyeatt, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Eisenbrandt, Mr. and Mrs. John Schwartz and Mr. and Mrs. Parke Montague.

At this meeting the club's program for the year was also planned. Dates have been set and several orchestras signed for the new year beginning in September.

On Thursday, the women members gathered at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Pyeatt to work out details and decorations for the mid-summer fiesta.

Junior Woman's Club Plans Construction of Scout Center

Construction on the first wing of the new Scout Center here this fall is the aim of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club.

The Center, main philanthropy for the club, will be a brick structure and will be situated near the YWCA.

The first wing will be 60 feet by 30 feet and will contain one large meeting room with a fireplace, kitchen, storage rooms and rest rooms.

It will accommodate six Boy Scout and six Girl Scout Troops. Additional troops would be formed, according to Scout officials, if a meeting place was available.

The second and third sections, to be constructed in the future, will contain small meeting rooms, equipment room with lockers, additional rest rooms and other facilities.

There will be a plastered wall in each section which can be used for film projection.

When the entire building is finished it will accommodate 24 troops for regular meetings as well as Brownie and Girl Scout ceremonies, Blue and Gold banquets, Courts of honor or any other scout activity requiring a large room.

Last year the Torrance Juniors donated $1000 to the building fund of the Scout Center and are planning to donate a like amount this year as well as being instrumental in getting the building started.

The local Juniors conducted the successful campaign to build the present YWCA building.
